CONTRACT CONDITIONS

Indemnity:

To the fullest extent permitted by law, Contractor and each of its subcontractors, employees and agents shall indemnify and hold harmless the CHSRA, and the directors, officers, employees and members thereof and each of them from claims, demands, causes of actions and liabilities of every kind and nature whatsoever arising out of or in connection with Contractor’s operations performed under this Agreement. This indemnification all administrative actions, enforcement actions, lawsuits, civil or criminal penalties, claims, liabilities and expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs at any administrative proceedings and any court costs) on account of any violation in connection with, or as a result of performance of the obligations under this Agreement. This indemnification shall extend to claims occurring after this agreement is terminated as well as while it is in force. The indemnity shall apply regardless of any active and/or passive negligent act or omission of the CHSRA, or the Directors, Officers and members thereof and each of them or caused solely by the designs provided by such parties. The indemnity set forth in this Section shall not be limited by insurance requirements or by any other provision of the Agreement. All work covered by this Agreement done at the site or in preparing or delivering livestock, materials or equipment to the site shall be at the sole risk of the Livestock Contractor.

Insurance:

Contractor and each of its subcontractors shall maintain at all times hereunder comprehensive general liability insurance coverage, including broad form property damage, completed operations, personal injury, contractual coverage, and automobile general liability insurance providing coverage of all owned, hired and non-owned automobiles, endorsed to name both the CHSRA and Eastern Sierra Tri-County Fair as additional insured, insuring against the liability of Contractor and its subcontractors arising out of and in connection with performance of its obligations under this Agreement and the use or occupancy of the Eastern Sierra Tri-County Fairgrounds, with adequate coverage amounts agreed to by CHSRA, in its sole and absolute discretion. Contractor shall deliver to CHSRA a certificate or certificates evidencing the foregoing insurance at least fourteen (14) days in advance of the event or as otherwise requested. CONTRACTOR IS ADDED AS NAMED INSURED FOR CONTRACTED EVENT ONLY (2023 CONTRACT YEAR ONLY).

In addition, Contractor and its subcontractor shall maintain workers’ compensation coverage sufficient to comply with all applicable laws. All insurance carried by Contractor and its subcontractors shall be primary and non-contributory with any insurance carried by CHSRA and each policy shall contain a waiver by the insurer of any right of subrogation against CHSRA, its affiliates, insurers, employees and contractors.

Disaster Clause:

Either party shall be excused for any failure to perform by such party in the performance of this agreement unavoidably caused by the act of any governmental authority, the act of any enemy, natural disasters, the elements of war, terrorism, war defense conditions, commercial impracticality, litigation, strikes, walkouts, or other causes beyond its control. Each party shall use due diligence to avoid such delay or default and to resume performance under this agreement as promptly as possible after such delay or default.

California Law:

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the internal laws of the State of California without reference to California’s choice or law rules.
